In order to save money for her brother's treatment, Yasemin has been working at Serpil's organization company while studying law. However, she is not aware that Serpil is using her best friend Şirin as an escort. Cem is the assistant general manager of the company and his path crosses with Yasemin working together. One night, Yasemin gets sexually assaulted by the co-CEO Mehmet at a launch party. The other co-CEO tries to cover the assault by offering Yasemin money to stay silent. Cem, who has a hard time trusting women, assumes that Yasemin is the one to blame. When the truth comes out, Cem realizes that Yasemin is innocent. Another night, Yasemin accidentally goes to a yacht party with Cem's brother Arda, but things go out of control when the police raid the yacht. She gets taken into custody by the police, and falsely accused of being an escort. While the police interrogate people from the yacht party, Serpil seeks the help of a police officer named Birkan. As Birkan becomes obsessively interested in Yasemin, he tells her that the file has been closed even though he holds onto the file to use in the future. Meanwhile, Cem and Yasemin start getting attracted to each other. When Murat runs away from the orphanage, Cem helps Yasemin find him. Being unaware of the truth, Arda believes that Cem is together with an escort and makes plans to inform his brother. On the other hand, Mehmet attempts to hurt Cem's feelings by plotting against Yasemin. He takes photographs of Yasemin as if she is with another man as an escort. When Cem learns the truth behind this scandal, he fires Mehmet. Meanwhile, Yasemin tries to raise money for her brother's treatment, but Cem secretly makes a donation under the name of a foundation. Yasemin and Şirin decide to report the yacht accident. Yasemin proves her innocence to the policemen and Cem. When Murat gets kidnapped, Cem finds and saves him. Yasemin learns that Cem is behind the foundation that raised money for her brother. In the end, Yasemin finds happiness as she clears her name, her brother gets treated, and she finds love as Cem proposes to her.
