SYNOPSIS:	Ali Rıza is a courageous taxi driver who, after his father's death, supports his family by sidelining his university studies and personal life. This routine existence dramatically changes when he aids Halide, the daughter of a criminal kingpin, escape from a mobster named Burak who is smitten with her. As their paths intertwine, Ali Rıza becomes enmeshed in a mafia war, testing his resilience, love, and sense of justice. Motivated by malice, Burak disrupts Ali Rıza's sister Nihan's wedding—a celebration that tragically concludes when Nihan is killed by a stray bullet from Burak. Swamped with a thirst for revenge, Ali Rıza targets Burak but halts his actions upon discovering his family has been kidnapped by Burak's father, Fuat Ersoylu. Ali Rıza subsequently infiltrates Istanbul's most infamous criminal syndicate, headed by Halide's father, Haşmet Gürkan, aiming to bring it down. Concurrently, Halide finds a necklace tied to her family's assassin and sets out for revenge, with Ali Rıza steadfastly by her side. However, Ali Rıza's deep entanglement with the mafia puts his family in jeopardy, pushing them to find sanctuary at Haşmet's residence. As they confront their enemies, Halide and Ali Rıza's budding romance becomes evident to Haşmet, who disapproves and exposes Ali Rıza's secret mission to Fuat. A violent clash leaves Halide gravely wounded, prompting both Ali Rıza and Haşmet to retaliate fiercely against Fuat. However, when a mysterious figure known as 'The Old One' surfaces, Halide starts to believe she might be the actual killer of her family. Amid this chaos, Fuat meets his end, but a fresh adversary named Balaban challenges Ali Rıza. After Balaban's downfall, Ali Rıza and Halide discover they're expecting a child. Gradually distancing themselves from the criminal underworld, the pair find solace in a serene life with their daughter.
