SYNOPSIS:	Maria, a vibrant Colombian woman who adopted the Turkish name Meryem upon marriage, experiences a shocking upheaval in Istanbul. Originally, she, her husband Kemal, and their children planned a brief visit to Turkey to attend Kemal's sister's wedding before returning to Spain. However, Kemal vanishes unexpectedly on the night of the wedding and, in a disturbing twist, is later discovered dead in a burned-out car alongside a stranger, a woman Meryem does not recognize. Convinced that Kemal's death was no accident, Meryem commits herself to finding his killer and decides to stay in Turkey until the case is solved. What she doesn't anticipate is that Istanbul will gradually become her new home. Despite being a stranger in a foreign land and feeling isolated among her late husband's family—who initially resisted her because of her foreign origin—Meryem carves a space for herself. Her life takes an unexpected turn when she encounters Aziz, a renowned designer who crafted the unique ring she wears: Leylifer. The Leylifer ring, recognized worldwide for its rarity and elegance, has earned Aziz many accolades. Meryem's possession of such a distinctive piece intrigues Aziz, and they are both drawn to this peculiar coincidence. However, they are yet to realize how this ring will intricately link their lives and bring about profound changes in their destinies.
