DESCRIPTION

From the breathtaking beauty of Istanbul to the heart-pumping drama of our contestants, Dream Couple has everything you are looking for. Meet 13 beautiful women and 1 dashing man as they embark on the adventure of a lifetime in a lavish mansion. Each contestant will be tested to their limits, as they navigate through intense drama, fierce competition, and unexpected twists and turns.

Well, you didn't think the man would have all the power and choose whichever girl he wants, right? His reign in the Dream Couple mansion will only last a week. Since, starting from week 2 there will be more men to join the party! But ssh, this is a secret that none of the contestants know about. The show will go on for 13 weeks. Each week, the ladies will try to impress the men via various methods. This could include challenges, activities, dates and simply – flirting. They will do whatever they can to impress the male contestants so that they get the chance to go on romantic dinner dates, participate in activities and trips in Istanbul and across Turkey; and of course, they should avoid being eliminated every week.

Get ready to witness a rollercoaster of emotions, from the highs of passion and romance to the lows of heartbreak and tears.

CONTESTANTS

At the beginning of the show, there are 13 women staying in a mansion and 1 man in the penthouse. A new male contestant will be added to the house each week. Hence, for every man who joins the group, one of the women in the mansion will have to say goodbye.

Each week, the program will start with excitement as the new male contestant will be revealed. Now, this is when the balance will change! Once a female contestant is eliminated, a male contestant will be added each week until there are 7 female and 7 male contestants present.

ELIMINATION PROCESS

At the end of each week, 4 women in total will be protected against elimination. The men will directly select 3 women to take under their protection. The 4th woman will be decided via weekly audience SMS votes. The woman with the most votes will be protected from elimination.

In total, 4 women will be protected and safe from elimination, whilst the rest of the women will not. All the women now vote on who they think should be eliminated between those that are not protected. The woman who receives the most votes will then be eliminated from the show.

MERGING THE HOUSES

At the beginning of the show, women and men stay in separate houses. Once the number of women and men becomes equal, a huge party will be thrown for the remaining contestants.

From this day forward, we will be having our male and female contestants merge their houses and start living under the same roof. That's right, our contestants will be sharing living spaces to get to know each other on another level. They'll cook together, clean together, and maybe even share a bedroom! This way our contestants will be able to get a taste of true intimacy and connection.

However, as our contestants merge their houses and start living together, there will be a new twist to the game: both men and women will now be at risk of being eliminated. Living under the same roof will intensify the competition, and our contestants will need to be on their toes at all times to avoid being sent home. With love and elimination on the line, the stakes have never been higher.

Starting from week 8, each elimination process will now alternate between men and women, adding an exciting element of unpredictability to the show. With no new contestants allowed, the stakes are higher than ever, and our remaining competitors will need to step up their game if they want to make it to the end.

THE GRAND FINALE

As we enter the 13th week of the program, only four male and four female competitors will remain, and the competition is about to get even more intense. Amongst these final eight contestants, those who have fallen in love and declared themselves as a couple will now have the chance to compete in the grand finale and vie for the grand prize.

But who will vote for the coveted title of 'Dream Couple'? The power is in the hands of the audience, who can cast their votes via SMS for the couple they believe deserves to win.

The couple with the most votes will be crowned 'The Dream Couple' and take home the grand prize. With everything on the line, the final episodes of our show are sure to be filled with romance, drama, and intense competition.

WILL THEY HAVE WHAT IT TAKES TO FORM THE DREAM COUPLE?
