SYNOPSIS:	Dilek is a resilient mother of two struggling to rebuild her life while going through a difficult divorce. Burdened by financial pressure and limited opportunities, she turns to illegal taxi driving to support her children. Her routine life takes an unexpected turn when she picks up Şadi, a mysterious and intimidating passenger whose presence immediately hints at trouble. After a police checkpoint causes her to lose her car the only stability she has left Dilek faces a desperate choice. With few alternatives, she accepts Şadi's offer to work as his personal driver. What begins as a practical decision for survival soon pulls her into a dangerous underworld filled with crime, secrecy, and moral ambiguity. As Dilek navigates this unfamiliar territory, she is forced to confront her fears, question her values, and redefine the limits of what she is willing to do to protect her family. Each step deeper into this shadowy world challenges her identity, transforming her from a woman trying to stay afloat into someone capable of making ruthless decisions. Fer explores themes of survival, transformation, and the cost of resilience, telling the story of an ordinary woman pushed into extraordinary circumstances where every choice carries consequences and escape is never guaranteed.
