SYNOPSIS:	Eylül decides to leave her high-speed life in Istanbul and accepts Bulut's invitation to have a vacation together in Bodrum. They go to stay at the mansion of a guru named Hande to attend her spiritual awakening lessons. However, Eylül discovers that this awakening journey is not what she was expecting. In the first session, Eylül realizes that these lessons are related to sexual relationships experienced together with the group of people staying at the mansion. When Eylül starts having unusual dreams wide awake, she decides to leave the mansion and goes to her friend's yacht party to meet a new client. However, Eylül's ex-boyfriend Kartal finds her after he gets out of prison. Eylül decides to return to the mansion and opens herself to Hande's spiritual and sexual awakening. Eylül develops a special bond with Hande because she believes that Eylül has very high energy. Meanwhile, Kartal keeps disturbing Eylül by stalking her and waiting in front of the mansion with his car. As she still has mixed feelings for Kartal, Eylül gets in his car to talk. When Bulut sees them together, he gets angry and starts having a fight with Kartal. Eylül leaves with her ex-boyfriend and spends the night with him. When Eylül says that she has been saving money to go to Wales as a sex worker, Kartal pushes her out of the car and leaves. Feeling regretful, Eylül returns to Hande's mansion once more. The group has one last spiritual session, where they meet the "creator". The creator is the life dorm that has been guiding Hande and her cult. While Eylül is talking to the creator, she begins to find peace. In the meantime, Kartal raids the mansion and starts shooting everyone one by one. As the events progress, the story connects to the scene where Eylül is murdered by Kartal in the first season.
